

Litigation

Grundberg Mocatta Rakison LLP's Litigation team offers both litigation and alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") services for corporate as well as private clients. Whether GMR's clients find the prospect of UK court action daunting and unfamiliar, or are well acquainted with litigation processes, GMR can provide advice and support tailored to their individual requirements.

The depth of experience, varied jurisdictional practices and linguistic skills within GMR enable the firm to offer clients clear guidance through court processes and ADR procedures, together with strategic advice as to how to achieve the desired outcome for the client.

GMR's Litigation and ADR team in particular advises on:

Corporate and Private Clients:

- Commercial contractual disputes
- Shareholder disputes including abuse of majority power
- Cross border disputes
- European competition
- International trade
- Intellectual property
- Product liability
- Insurance and reinsurance
- Real property
- Landlord and tenant
- Building and construction, adjudication, arbitration and mediation.
- Professional negligence
- Employment (see separate employment team details)

Private Clients:

- Divorce
- Probate

GMR's Litigation team is headed by:

Michael Tackley Tel. +44 (0)20 7632 1629, e-mail michaelt@gmrlaw.com

The full list of GMR's Litigation team is to be found on our website: www.gmrlaw.com